

INSTITUTIONS/CAPACITY BUILDERS

Post-secondary and/or research institutions based in Saskatchewan that contribute novel ideas, relevant education and training and/or sophisticated facilities to the minerals industry innovation ecosystem.

- Direct contributors of innovation capacity (e.g., researchers, educators, trainers, labs, and test facilities)
- Potential contributors to entrepreneurial capacity
- Must have a history of responsiveness to minerals industry innovation opportunities and needs (e.g., research and/or teach is necessary for but not sufficient to meet industry innovation needs)

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP:

Research-based institutions - $5,000 and 25% in project contributions in which they are recipient of IMII funding.

Training-based institutions - 25% in project contributions in which they are recipient of IMII funding.

BENEFITS:

- Influencing strategic direction of the organization through a seat on the Board of Directors (elected position for training institutions).
- Work closely with IMII minerals company and solution provider members to accelerate the pace of technology performance improvements in Saskatchewan's minerals industry.
- Work closely with IMII minerals company and solution provider members to accelerate diversity & inclusion in Saskatchewan's minerals industry.
- Opportunity to align strategic efforts with the minerals industry and ensure innovation budgets and capacities can be effectively utilized in both the short and long term.
- Companies access your state-of-the-art infrastructures and expertise.
- Build awareness of your company with students interested in pursuing mining careers, and within the mining research community.